Honorable William E. Colby, Jr.
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Colby:

It is a pleasure to express the appreciation of The National War College for the services of [redacted] of your Agency's Office of Economic Research as a member of the College's faculty during the Academic Year 1973-74.

STAT

[redacted] was unfailingly helpful and painstaking in carrying out his responsibilities here. He ably conducted elective courses in the Principles of Economics and in the Far East Area and he lectured on the Chinese economic situation in the Prescribed Course Program. His work with discussion and trip groups was discharged with understanding and dedication.

We benefitted greatly from [redacted] impressive professional competence, and his approachable, low-key manner made him an effective source for counseling students in their individual research and study efforts.

STAT

Your Agency has consistently made available top-flight officers to serve on our faculty. Students and faculty alike will long remember [redacted] as a person and as a professional of clear distinction.

Sincerely,

On file OSD release instructions apply.

M. G. BAYNE
Vice Admiral, U.S. Navy
Commandant
